CAI Awards Five Grants Supporting Summer Children's Programs

Allentown, PA – June 28, 2019: Computer Aid, Inc. (CAI) is pleased to announce the awarding of five grants to nonprofit organizations totaling $64,000 for the operation of their summer enrichment programs through CAI's community relations initiative CAI Cares Education4Kids. The following organizations received awards: the Joshua Group, Harrisburg, PA, Boys and Girls Club of Western PA, Pittsburgh, PA; Boys and Girls Club of Easton, PA; Boys and Girls Club of Allentown, PA; and Holy Infancy School, Bethlehem, PA. Through the awarding of these program funds, CAI's education partners will work to ensure students strengthen their Math & Reading skills.

CAI Cares determined that these organizations qualify as education partners based on their core mission to help underserved students succeed academically. Along with their commitment to scholastic excellence, each partnering organization is also committed to character development ensuring students succeed in life. Like CAI, its partners desire to be a force for good in their communities.

CAI Cares is providing these funds for a variety of uses including: Teacher Stipends, Resource Materials, Educational Programming and Educational Trips. All of these organizations anticipate utilizing the Istation Reading and or the DreamBox Learning Math Programs in their Summer Clubs and Enrichment Programs.

“This is core to CAI’s mission. We believe we have a corporate responsibility to help children have the opportunity to be the best they can be. One of the prime ways to do this is by giving children the opportunity to succeed in life by providing them with a high quality, personalized education that would otherwise not be available to them.” Tony Salvaggio, CEO, CAI.
